

When sharing about my experience with the services by Cardinal Concierge, and its owner Alex MacLean all I can say is "wow!" Alex's level of dedication, professionalism, and expertise of this company's service are second to none. From start to finish Alex and his team have always impressed me with their event access and travel arrangements. Cardinal Concierge have always listened to exactly what is required, then effortlessly made it happen. I highly recommend this service to anyone looking for a professional concierge service!"
